A most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood oval mirror. The original beveled mirror plate is framed within a fine beaded giltwood border and beautiful decorative foliate carved movements. At the base are exceptional scrolled foliate movements with lovely leaves centering a striking Fleur de Lys. At each side are additional richly carved foliate movements while the striking pierced top crown is centered by detailed large seashell reserve flanked by intricately detailed swaging floral garlands. All original gilt throughout.
