A striking and most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood sofa settee. The settee is raised by five fine scrolled foliate legs below the most impressive straight frieze decorated with a richly carved mirrored interlocking geometric band which extends along the sides and back. Above each of the corner legs are richly chased block rosettes with additional most decorative geometric patterns extending up the beautiful giltwood support which are also finished on the inside. Above each support are striking flower bud designed finials with richly chased movements extending along the top support and centered at the back by an exceptional central urn draped in richly carved swaging floral garland. All original gilt throughout.
