A beautiful and very high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. mahogany, kingwood and ormolu side table / desk, attributed to Linke. The table is raised by elegant slender circular tapered fluted legs with foliate wrap around sabots, fitted chandelles and fine mottled top caps. Above each leg are wonderfully executed pierced ormolu mounts with lovely scrolled rinceau shaped foliate designs and swaging garlands. The straight frieze displays one concealed drawer centered by a striking richly chased fitted ormolu plaque of charming intricately detailed cherubs playing musical instruments and reading books amidst clouds and flanked by elegant quarter veneered panels framed within mottled ormolu bands. The top displays a beautiful quarter veneered top showcasing the beautiful wood grain framed within a fine fillet and a mottled wrap around gallery.
