A most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. Mahogany, ormolu and white Carrara marble freestanding dessert console. The console is raised by fine circular tapered fluted legs with fitted ormolu sabots and mottled top caps. At the center is a demi-lune display tier showcasing the beautiful mahogany grain framed within a lovely pierced ormolu gallery. Above each leg is a fitted fluted ormolu plaque separating one central drawer and two faux drawers on each side. Each are decorated with richly chased beaded ormolu pulls set on recessed back panels. Above is the original fitted white Carrara marble top also framed within a striking pierced ormolu gallery.
