A striking and most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. Napoleon III period ebonized Fruitwood, exotic woods, ormolu and leather side/center table. The circular table is raised by slender circular fluted legs with foliate top caps, fine topie shaped feet and block reserves with lovely inlaid crossed designs. The legs are each attached by a beautiful curved stretcher with a beautiful circular inlaid foliate reserve and adorned with fine beaded ormolu bands throughout. Above each leg are striking richly chased ormolu block reserves flanking the apron decorated with wonderfully executed inlaid Rinceau scrolled exotic wood foliate designs set on an ebonized Fruitwood background and framed within a wrap around beaded ormolu band. Above is the original burgundy colored gold tooled leather top framed within an ebonized Fruitwood band with additional beautiful inlaid floral designs with a striking reeded mottled ormolu band at the border.
