A beautiful and most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. onyx and ormolu centerpiece bowl. The centerpiece is raised by a circular onyx base with a fine mottled border, an elegant bottom ormolu filet, and a richly chased wrap around tied berried laurel band. Above the socle shaped pedestal support is the circular onyx bowl with a fine mottled design and displaying beautiful veins centered by a striking richly chased ormolu rosette in a superb satin and burnished finish. All original gilt throughout.
