A stunning and extremely decorative French 19th century Louis XVI st. onyx, ormolu, and Cloisonné centerpiece. The centerpiece is raised by a square base with exceptional scrolled foliate feet in a rich satin and burnished finish and striking scrolled Cloisonné plaques at each side. The socle shaped pedestal support displays a fine mottled band below the beautifully shaped body encased with an outstanding wrap around Cloisonné band with spectacular wonderfully executed colorful foliate designs. At each side are charming intricately detailed love birds perched on the scrolled handles with topie shaped finials, exceptional attention to detail, and richly chased plumage. Also finished on the inside with a mottled design at the rim.
