A beautiful French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and Baccarat crystal chandelier. The twelve arm, fourteen light chandelier is centered by a striking faceted bottom crystal ball below a stunning array of exquisite kite and prism shaped cut crystal pendants and lovely beaded swaging garlands. Each elegantly scrolled arm branches out to either an electrified wax covered candle and lovely floral bobèche or a striking crystal perfume bottle finial. At the center is a row of eight lights illuminating the exquisite central finial emitting a beautiful warm glow and displaying an impressive array of mottled cut designs leading up to the magnificent top crown with two lovely tiers of sprays adorned with additional most decorative crystal pendants.
