An elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and glass three light lantern. The lantern displays four fine and most charming bottom acorn finials below a pierced baluster designed pierced wrap around band. At the front is one door which displays its original hardware and opens to access the three arms which hang at the center. Encasing the curved glass sides are beautiful swaging beaded garlands with elegant tassels and tied ribbons. The top crown displays a unique shape and striking hanging bells.
