A unique and most decorative French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and opaline chandelier. The six arm, seven bulb chandelier is centered by exquisite extremely decorative branch like designs with striking wonderfully executed leaves with fine etched details, grape clusters, and superb opaline blooming flowers. The six elegantly scrolled arms lead to floral candle cups centering a beautiful opaline bowl with one light bulb emitting a wonderful warm glow with three chains leading up to the circular canopy with a lovely foliate reserve.
