An elegant and impressive French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and patinated bronze chandelier. The six arm chandelier is centered by a finely chased bottom acorn finial below beautiful palmettes and fine foliate designs.

At the center are most decorative wrap around patinated bronze foliate rosettes, a lovely draped garland and finely chased pierced palmettes. Each elegantly scrolled arm is adorned with a fine acanthus leaves and lead to foliate candle cups. The central support displays a lightly curved foliate spray shape and is decorated with additional charming patinated bronze rosettes and two pierced palmettes above. All original gilt throughout.
