An exceptional and most charming French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and Saxe porcelain chandelier. The four arm five light chandelier is centered by a striking and wonderfully executed woven ormolu basket with a rope wrapped handle. At the center is one bulb highlighting the charming basket in low lighting. The four elegantly curved arms display stunning finely detailed blooming flower candle cups adorned with superb hand painted Saxe porcelain flowers and connected by lovely swaging branches. The central fut displays a fine twisted fluted design and is adorned with additional magnificent blooming Saxe porcelain flowers leading to the pierced tied ribbon top crown.
