A stunning and very high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and Sèvres porcelain centerpiece. The centerpiece is raised by an elegant ormolu base with fine foliate feet, beautiful richly chased frolicking lovebirds and a striking fluted socle shaped pedestal support adorned with superb swaging berried laurel garlands tied with ribbons and flanked by charming winged cherubs amidst scrolled acanthus leaves. The exceptional oblong shaped cobalt blue Sèvres porcelain bowl displays wonderfully executed colorful hand painted blooming flowers on one side and lovely winged cherubs with a lyre, a scroll, and love birds at the other side each framed within gilt foliate bands with intricately detailed floral designs. Beautiful scrolled foliate ormolu handles lead up each side to Greek key designs draped in a swaging blooming flower garland and flanking the beaded and reeded rim centering the finished interior decorated with remarkable gilt lattice designs and superb colorful hand painted flowers.
