An elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and tole bouillotte lamp. The lamp is raised by a circular mottled bowl shaped base with a fine wrap around beaded band at the border. Above the circular fluted central support are three elegant baluster shaped candle cups on a decorative scalloped base. Above is the original green tole shade which is adjustable in height and secured by a beautiful ormolu screw with a charming arrow design and a top hoop finial.
