A striking French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and white Carrara marble Gueridon side table. The circular two tiered table is raised on its original casters below elegant hoof feet connected by a most decorative pierced stretcher with concave sides and a central urn finial. The elegantly curved supports display fine fluted designs and are connected by a central circular tier with its original white Carrara marble top. Above each leg are remarkable richly chased rams heads with hoops in their mouths while above is the original fitted white Carrara marble top framed within a mottled border. All original gilt throughout.
