A most impressive French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu chandelier. The eight arm chandelier is centered by a striking bottom foliate finial below a reeded design and the elegantly curved body decorated with richly chased reserves of beautiful maidens. Each beautiful scrolled arm branches out adorned with large acanthus leaves leaded to reeded bobeches and lovely curved candle cups. The central support displays a most decorative baluster shape with fine foliate designs on a hammered background centered by four remarkable scrolled elements also adorned with richly chased acanthus leaves with fine top urn shaped finials all below the original reeded foliate canopy.
