A charming and most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu freestanding vanity mirror. The original beveled mirror plate is set within a fine mottled frame with a lovely tied fluted border. At the base are Greek key shaped supports with elegant floral feet centering a beautiful tied berried laurel wreath and a scrolled foliate design. Above and at each side are richly chased rams heads centering lovely detailed swaging floral garlands with a tied ribbon and a smooth pierced cabochon at the top.
