A beautiful and most decorative French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu, patinated metal, and porcelain chandelier. The six arm chandelier is centered by a lovely pierced lightly curved bottom basket with a fine woven design from where the striking patinated metal branches and leaves are seemingly growing out. The branches are adorned with beautiful colorful wonderfully executed hand painted porcelain flowers leading to remarkable finely detailed floral ormolu candle cups. The central fut has a charming tied swaging garland with tassels design seemingly tied to the basket handle and secured with a lovely ribbon while wrapped with a delicate floral vine leading to the pierced foliate crown with additional beautiful hand painted porcelain flowers and a fine tied ribbon.

Height w/chain: 53"
