A striking French 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated and giltwood mirror. The oval mirror retains its original mirror plate set within a beautiful wrap around beaded and mottled band with most decorative giltwood scrolled foliate designs extending throughout the frame set on a patinated off white background. At the base is a superb scrolled family crest like reserve with a smooth central cabochon and flanked by fine berried laurel branches. The top crown is centered by a charming richly carved cherub playing a flute while seated amidst intricately detailed berried laurel branches at one side and lovely blooming flowers and ripe fruit amidst branches at the other side tied with a ribbon.
