A stunning French 19th century Louis XVI st. Patinated and Giltwood mirror. The original oval mirror is framed within a beaded inner frame with an outer twisted foliate designed band. Below the oval mirror are two scrolled acanthus leaf Giltwood reserves flanking a central tied bow. The top of the oval mirror has a central medallion crest flanked by garlands of richly carved flowers and 'C' scrolled berried laurel branches all on a Patinated off white background. The outer frame has a Coeur de Rai inner trim and an outer spiral twisted designed band with flowers. At the top has a large fanciful flowing tied bow.
