An enchanting French 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated bronze signed statue of two maidens and cherub. The statue is raised on an elongated oval mottled ormolu base. Above is a terrain design with detailed grapes and vines under the maiden's feet. The statue depicts two maidens with ribbons in classical drape. One holds a cheerful cherub in her lap while the other maiden dangles a grapevine over the head of the outreaching infant. Fine details with wonderful expressions throughout
