A beautiful and most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated and giltwood mirror. The original mirror plate is set within a beautiful richly carved tied laurel leaf frame with beautiful scrolled foliate elements at each corner and a fine patinated fillet at the border. The stunning pierced top crown is centered by charming finely detailed love birds in a berried laurel wreath flanked by outstanding oak leaves and acorns in a rich satin and burnished finish. The lovely patinated grey fillet extends along the background with elegant foliate panels and a beautiful acanthus leaf border above. All original gilt and patina throughout.
