A charming and most attractive French 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated wood and polychrome two piece lounge set. The armchair and ottoman join together to create a comfortable small scaled lounge chair. Each is raised by elegant baluster shaped feet with fine foliate designs and beautiful fluted block reserves. The frieze displays a lovely mottled design with fine wrap around fillets and an acanthus leaf carving at the center. The armchair displays elegantly curved cushioned arm supports with fine scrolled designs while each displays an elegant curved back also decorated with charming polychrome fillets and a central carved acanthus leaf reserve. All original patina throughout.
