A handsome and large scaled French 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated wood buffet. The four door and four drawer buffet with a protruding center and two curved ends is raised by four legs below the mottled frieze. The two center doors are flanking a central fluted column. The front doors as well as the two outer curved doors are designed with rectangular recessed panels with a central raised panel with concave corners with carved floral accents and an outer raised mottled border. All four doors are fitted with a patinated bronze keyhole escutcheon and lock. The doors open to reveal an adjustable shelf in each compartment. Above the four drawers display a fluted design framed within a mottled border. The top shelf is elegantly painted in a faux marble finish.
