A beautiful country French 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated wood Vaisselier vitrine. The vitrine is raised by elegant circular tapered fluted legs below a fine dentil band at the frieze. The base displays three doors, each decorated with carved recessed panels, mottled designs and fine rosettes. Each door retains its original hardware and are separated by elegant fluted columns. Above are three most attractive glass doors with their original glass panes, also separated by fine columns. The doors open to reveal three sets of two adjustable shelves. The striking top crown displays a majestic capital like design, a finely carved dentil band and a lovely carved central rosette. All original patina throughout.
