A stunning and very high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. Rouge Griotte marble and ormolu lidded urn. The urn is raised by a square base with a most decorative recessed plaque at each side, a fine bottom ormolu fillet, and a striking fluted wrap around band with lovely foliate designs and an impressive interlocking geometric band. The ormolu socle shaped pedestal displays beautiful foliate designs below the elegantly shaped body encased by additional foliate details at the base. Remarkable scrolled foliate arms lead up each side with acanthus leaves and draped garlands connected by an intricately detailed pierced fitted ormolu band of intertwining berried laurel branches and a charming ribbon. Above the curved neck are a lovely wrap around foliate band and the removable lid with a foliate finial and which lifts off to reveal the finished interior.
