A most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. Sèvres porcelain and ormolu centerpiece bowl. The centerpiece is raised by beautiful pierced scrolled foliate supports with richly chased maiden faces which are connected by charming swaging floral garlands. The striking hand painted Sèvres porcelain bowl depicts lovely scenes of a man serenading a woman on one side and wonderfully executed vividly colored flowers on the other, each framed within a fine gilt border. Scrolled foliate ormolu handles lead up each side to graceful fluted Greek key designs. The rim displays a fine wrap around pierced foliate ormolu band while the bowl is also finished on the inside with additional finely detailed flowers. All original gilt throughout.
