A stunning French 19th century Louis XVI st. silvered bronze and ormolu centerpiece vase. The vase is raised by a circular mottled base with a hammered and reeded pattern and a fine foliate band in a rich satin and burnished finish. At the center are two charming silvered bronze cherubs. One cherub is seated with detailed netting on his head, while the other is playing with birds. At the center is a striking branch design with a weave basket at the base and beautiful etched grapes and grape leaves leading up the the reeded foliate support. A palmette designed ormolu cup supports the thick cut Baccarat crystal vase with petal designed border.
