An impressive French 19th century Louis XVI st. Vert de Patricia marble and ormolu urn of prosperity. The large scale urn is raised by a fine square marble base below an elegant ormolu support with concave corners and a fine rosette at the front and rear. The socle shaped Vert de Patricia marble pedestal support is decorated with a lovely beaded and twisted ribbon designed wrap around bands. The striking elongated body is encased with richly chased pierced foliate designs and adorned with pierced intricately detailed swaging floral garlands tied with charming ribbons at the front, rear and sides. The slender elegantly curved neck is flanked by powerful richly chased snakes with a beautiful finely detailed acorn and foliate top finial.
