An elegant and high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. white Carrara marble and ormolu clock signed Tiffany. The clock is raised on an oblong scalloped shaped white Carrara marble base with fine topie shaped feet and a lovely fitted wrap around beaded band at the border. Striking columns extend upwards with Coeur de Rai designs at the base and adorned with richly chased floral and foliate designs with beaded fillets. The columns are flanked by impressive fluted baluster shaped designs with acorn finials and centering a charming richly chased acorn finial and beautiful pendulum. The enameled clock face displays pierced foliate hands, Arabic numeral hour markings and charming finely detailed colorful hand painted floral garlands framed within a fine beaded border amidst acanthus leaves with a central tied bow. Above is an exquisite woven basket with beautiful richly chased blooming flowers with two graceful lovebirds frolicking. All original gilt throughout.
