A stunning French 19th century Louis XVI st. Wrought Iron, Gilt Metal and Brèche d'Alep marble console. This freestanding console is raised by four elegant pierced scrolled Wrought Iron supports with scrolled Wrought Iron feet and overlapping Gilt Metal acanthus leaves. The two front legs are decorated with Gilt Metal chandelles at the bottom. The four legs are connected by two side stretchers and one front stretcher with a foliate decorated central reserve. The pierced front apron has a wonderful central reserve with Greek key designs and a Gilt Metal rosette above an arabesque shaped array of berried acanthus leaves. This reserve is flanked by oval shaped iron and exquisitely decorated rosettes. The two slightly curved side aprons have similar oval shaped iron pattern as the front apron. Above is the original Brèche d'Alep marble top with a fine mottled border.
