An elegant and large scale French 19th century Napoleon III Period Ormolu, patinated Bronze, and tole centerpiece, signed by Henri Picard. This beautiful jardiniere centerpiece is raised by six scrolled foliate legs flanked by acanthus leaves. A striking fluted Ormolu band wraps around the body with its mottled edges, berried laurel vines, and a stately central cabochon reserve. The stunning central cabochon reserve is decorated by scrolling foliate designs with two cherubs holding the reserve on either side. At each side are circular foliate decorated handles with stunning acanthus leaves and spiral reeded designs. Inside is the original and removable tole insert with circular handles at each end.
