A stunning French 19th century Neo-Classical st. crystal and ormolu chandelier. At the base of the chandelier are eight descending circular ormolu bands of impressive hanging crystals and a central ormolu acorn finial at the bottom. Above are the twelve 'S' scrolled arms on two levels with glass saucers and hanging kite shaped crystals and an ormolu band decorated with ornamental palmettes. The chandelier is exquisitely draped by garlands of cut crystal from the top crown accented by hanging crystals from the ormolu canapé ornamented with additional palmettes
