An elegant French 19th century Neo-Classical st. Mahogany and Maplewood demi lune console. The console is raised by three block feet below a demi lune shaped bottom tier with a supporting central circular column adorned with finely chased ormolu top and bottom caps. The back panel with Mahogany borders surrounds the original mirror plate. The top frieze is decorated by a central richly chased ormolu mount of two outer palmettes flanking a central rosette. The top has Maplewood inlaid border fillets while the center back has a half round inlay with a flower like design.
