A handsome and extremely elegant French early 19th Century Neo-Classical st. mahogany, ormolu and Rosso Merling marble freestanding console. The console is raised by square tapered feet with unique and most decorative ball sabots. The bottom display tier showcases the beautiful mahogany grain with a lovely pierced ormolu gallery and original mirror back plate. The front supports display charming ormolu feet at the base and impressive richly chased caryatids at the top. Above is the original Rosso Merling marble top which repeats the lovely shape of the console below and displays a mottled border. All original gilt throughout.
