A striking and most decorative French 19th century Neo-Classical st. Mahogany, white Carrara marble, Brocatelle d'Espagne marble and ormolu side table. The round table is raised by elegantly angled tapered rectangular legs with handsome richly chased paw feet and decorated with fine recessed fluted ormolu fillets below striking palmettes with each leg connected by a superb stretcher with a remarkable central urn finial. Above each leg are exquisite richly chased mask of beautiful maidens flanked by additional pierced palmette reserves in a wonderful satin and burnished finish. Above is the original white Carrara marble top with a most decorative fitted circular Brocatelle d'Espagne marble band all fitted within a fine fluted mottled wrap around ormolu gallery. All original gilt throughout.
