A sensational French 19th century Neo-Classical st. ormolu and Rouge Griotte marble circular center table. The table is raised by a thick triangular Rouge Griotte marble base with most decorative concave sides, a mottled border and ormolu bun feet. The central support displays an urn with attractive interlocking designs, fine fluted and reeded patterns and a beautiful acanthus leaf. The three elegantly curved legs are decorated with handsome and richly chased lion paw feet with a large acanthus leaf. The striking pierced apron displays beautiful interlocking circular designs accented by exceptional block rosettes and finely detailed lion heads with rings in their mouths. Above is the original Rouge Griotte marble top with a mottled border and a most impressive hexagonal shaped inlaid Campan Rubané marble center. All original gilt throughout.
