A spectacular and very high quality French 19th century Regence st. giltwood and white Carrara marble console. The freestanding console is raised by beautiful scrolled tapered legs with handsome paw feet and exceptional scrolled foliate designs, acanthus leaves, and striking recessed seashell reserves at each corner. The legs are each connected by a bottom stretcher with fine mottled borders and an impressive large scale central reeded urn with a top foliate final and superb foliate dragons at each side. The outstanding scalloped frieze displays a magnificent central palmette flanked by stunning scrolled acanthus leaves and intricately detailed blooming flowers all set on an elegant and most decorative lattice background in a wonderful satin and burnished finish. Above is the original white Carrara marble top with a fine double mottled border. All original gilt throughout.
