A superb and high quality French 19th century Renaissance st. ormolu, blue enamel, and Rouge Griotte marble centerpiece urn. The centerpiece is raised by a striking circular Rouge Griotte marble base with a most decorative elegantly curved design and a fine wrap around beaded band. The socle shaped pedestal support displays richly chased acanthus leaves and a reeded band. The striking body above displays a stunning array of intricately detailed foliate designs, Vitruvian scrolls, beaded, and fluted designs with a remarkable unique central blue enameled reserve framed within a charming tied ribbon. At each side are outstanding scrolled handles leading to double richly chased acanthus leaves in a rich satin and burnished finish centering the elegantly curved neck with a beautiful interlocking pattern design at the rim and with a finished interior.
