A striking and very high quality French 19th century Renaissance st. ormlu centerpiece. The oblong shaped centerpiece is raised by four elegant topie shaped feet and two handsome paw feet. Beautiful foliate designs in a superb satin and burnished finish extend throughout and are centered by a most decorative scrolled rosette at the front and back and display remarkable scrolled handles at each side with richly chased lion heads and fine foliate designs. The rim displays a unique zig zag design with dots centering the original removable interior.
