An elegant and high quality French 19th century Renaissance st. Ormolu five arm chandelier possibly by F. Barbedienne. The chandelier is centered by a most unique bottom finial with richly chased faces below beautiful interlocking palmettes designs. Each of the S scrolled arms display large acanthus leaves and charming grape cluster candle cups. At the center the is a striking and richly detailed stork perched on water flora, lovely scrolled movements and fine leaves. Leading up six chains is the foliate top crown with a fine inverted finial.
