A striking and very unique French 19th century Renaissance st. patinated bronze and ormolu chandelier. The six arm chandelier is centered by a fine bottom acorn finial below the patinated bronze globe shaped body adorned with charming and most decorative ormolu stars. An elegant tied Laurel leaf band extends around the center from where three pairs of arms branch out and are held by richly chased handsome men amidst striking foliate mounts. Each arm displays fine acorn finials, foliate candle cups and superb frosted glass flame bulb covers. Three fluted circular supports lead upwards with patinated bronze foliate designs at the center and a reeded ball shaped reserve at the top centered by scrolled hooks.
