An impressive and high quality French 19th century Transitional st. Kingwood, ormolu and Brèche Violette marble cabinet vitrine by Maurice Thibault. The four door cabinet is raised by elegant cabriole legs with fine fitted foliate sabots below striking richly chased pierced foliate corner mounts in a superb satin and burnished finish. The frieze displays a beautifully curved shape centered by additional remarkable pierced foliate ormolu mounts. The central doors each display two beautiful contrasting quarter veneered Kingwood panels set within elegant mottled and foliate wrap around ormolu bands with a stunning finely detailed Bacchanalian mask above. The outer doors display a unique and most decorative double wire mesh design framed within the same beautiful wrap around ormolu band. The doors each open to reveal four adjustable shelves and all original striking high quality top bottom locks and hardware. Above is the original Brèche Violette marble top with a fine mottled border.
