A most sensational quality and elegant French early 19th century Louis XVI st. mahogany, ormolu and patinated bronze pedestal. This unique pedestal is raised by a thick square base with concave corners. Above the base is a bold and impressive mottled ormolu band accented with 'X' designs. The circular column above is elaborately decorated by two burnished ormolu bands. The lower band has a laurel garland draped around it and supports a central medallion of Louis XVI in patinated bronze. The top ormolu band is the lower portion of the swivel solid mahogany top.
