An exquisite and most elegant French early 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated and giltwood trumeau mirror. The mirror retains its original mirror plates framed within a fine mottled giltwood border with a delicate gadroon design and lovely laurel branches tied with ribbons. Elegant recessed panels lead up each side with superb richly carved urns at the base with blooming flowers, Greek key handles and swaging berried laurel garlands with a hole for sconces at the center and charming intricately detailed blooming flowers at the top tied with ribbons and all framed in a fine wrap around giltwood band. Above at the center are two panels with the lower one displaying a lovely row of arched designs with fine foliate carvings and the upper panel displaying exceptional most decorative musical instruments amidst branches tied with a ribbon. All original gilt and patina throughout.

Shown with sconces item 12526 sold separately.
