An elegant and large scale French late 19th century Louis XV st. ormolu hexagon lantern. Each fitted glass plate is fitted within an ormolu frame with a mottled design. The panels are embellished with foliate scrolls at each corner while at the bottom center are additional foliate mounts. At the top of each panel are acanthus leaves flanked by 'S' scrolls. The lantern is held by scrolled supports with finials. At the center are four 'C' scrolled arms that each lead to a fluted saucer and candlecup. Wonderful scale.
