An elegant and wonderfully decorative French Louis XVI st. late 19th century ormolu coffee table with an 18th century tapestry fitted top. The rectangular shaped ormolu table is raised by four foliate designed legs. The legs are joined by an 'X' stretcher with a circular mottled center. The top has flat sides and surrounds the fitted tapestry of a maiden holding a scale in one hand and a sword in the other. The maiden is flanked by two caryatid columns and outer urns with bouquets of blossoming flowers and a foliate designed border. The 19th century ormolu frame may have been purposely made for this tapestry. Unique with wonderful rich and warm colors.
