A handsome and most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu six arm chandelier. The chandelier is centered by a richly chased bottom acorn finial below a beautiful spiral fluted pattern and fine swaging garlands. Each lightly scrolled arm displays charming and detailed urns with an abundance of flowers and a beautiful etched design. The unique and most decorative triple scrolled designed central fut encases a striking eternal flame and leads up to a foliate canopy all in a satin and burnished finish.
