A stunning French 19th century Louis XVI st. porcelain lidded urn signed Jacob Petit. The urn is raised by a square base with gilt accents below the elegant socle shaped pedestal with a fine mottled band and lovely floral designs. The body displays a wonderfully executed central portrait of a young woman in a dress with charming flowers and a fine necklace. She is framed within a gilt band with berried laurel garlands tied with a bow flanked by a superb gilt lattice pattern set on a beautiful blue background surrounded by exceptional gilt rosettes on a pink background. The sides and back display stunning intricately detailed bouquets of flowers with lovely vivid colors framed in the same manner. Above the elegantly curved fluted neck and wrap around intertwined gilt band is the removable lid with additional beautiful floral reserves, a beaded pattern, and charming foliate finial.
