A handsome French mid 18th century Louis XV Period patinated wood, Giltwood and Rouge Royal marble console. The freestanding console is raised by four elegant 'S' scrolled legs with richly carved acanthus leaves above Giltwood tapered block feet, and decorated by a central and outer Giltwood mottled trim leading to the apron. The arbalest shaped front apron has a wonderfully decorative pierced central reserve with a bouquet of cut floral branches flanked by two 'C' scrolls and upper acanthus leaves. Above lays the original and impressive Rouge Royal marble top with a beautiful double mottled border. All original gilt and patina throughout.
